NPW Honorees

National Payroll Week, a great time to celebrate the payroll profession, is also a fine time of year to recognize the best of the best. The following members have been honored by their fellow chapter members for exemplary dedication to their respective chapters and to the payroll community:

- Kymberly Bailey, Lisa Rapone, CPP, and Mary Scorsone, CPP — Greater Rochester Area Payroll Association Members of the Year
- Karen Schoff — Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky Chapter Payroll Professional of the Year
- Janet Broyles, CPP — Indianapolis Chapter Payroll Person of the Year
- Connie Connor, CPP — Pennsylvania Payroll Professional of the Year
- Karleen Cotton, CPP — Colorado Payroll Person of the Year

Although each of these award winners is to be applauded for different contributions to their chapter, one fact remains consistent. These individuals never say “no” when asked to serve their chapter. They are the ones who can always be counted on to plan activities months ahead of time and they are the ones who jump in at the last minute when things need to get done, “like yesterday!”

The staff at the American Payroll Association join chapter members in applauding the extraordinary efforts of these award-winning payroll professionals.
